

UNKNOWN

EST. 2018

WELCOME!

Thank you for coming to hang out with us in our secret little cocktail bar. We know times have been weird, but let us assure you we are doing everything we can to keep things safe for us all. So sit back, and let us take care of you...

Our menu is ever-changing. Our house creations are constantly changing. This means we can keep things exciting for you guys and also use the freshest super-seasonal ingredients. We also have the best hot dogs you've ever eaten - trust us!

Since opening in December 2018 our goal at Unknown has always been to become THE cocktail bar of Chattanooga. We aim to be a different kind of cocktail bar. A place where you can shoot the shit with our bartenders, take in some good music and sip on creative, high quality drinks. But most importantly, somewhere you can feel comfortable!

Thank you for choosing to spend your evening with us. We truly appreciate you. If we can do anything for you, please let us know.

Cheers!
